PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Joyce Taylor, President

As you entered the Elks Lodge at 1 pm on Sunday, May 21st, you heard the wonderful LIVE Trad Jazz sounds of the Ragged Rascals Jazz Band. Heidi Arnott brought these student musicians to us. We enjoyed their two songs and when the Jammer Band took the stage, they encouraged the Ragged Rascals to stay and play with them.

Following the Jammers, Heidi Evelyn's New Orleans Jazz Band took the stage and wowed the audience. They opened with Dippermouth Blues, and just kept going, playing LIVE Trad Jazz Music all afternoon with Heidi, a marvelous vocalist, singing many of our favorites. They definitely kept the dancers on the floor with Lindy, Swing, and even Balboa. Fabulous group of musicians!

If that wasn't enough, we gave away 4 bottles of wine to the costume winners, and CD's to our entry drawing winners. We had a wonderful emcee, Brett Page, from Monterey, dance lessons and exhibition dancers. Thank you all! Thank you Dr. Wayne Ott for the bag of CD's for some of our prizes.

On Sunday, June 25th we will have Ryan Calloway's Silver Bell Jazz Band performing lots of Trad Jazz tunes. Also, we will have a celebration for Dick Williams, who passed away recently. He was the volunteer South Bay Jam Set Director and Leader for many years.

Thanks go to those who helped set up and/or take down the decorations for this month, Heidi Arnott, Sunny Tokunaga, John Law, Susie Miyata, and anyone else I missed. I really appreciate all of you!

Remember, we have LIVE Trad Jazz Music 1-5 pm on every Sunday Performance!

The Ragged Rascals Jazz Band started our day at 1 pm, and what a way to start! They sounded wonderful as they played their two songs. Thank you Heidi for introducing us to these fine young musicians. As the Jammer Band took the stage, we invited the Rascals to stay and play. Luke, on electric guitar, did join us, and stayed all afternoon, so he could perform with us again on our second set. Way to go Luke. Please return. You can be one of our Jammers. We had another new Jammer, Melony, on electric guitar. She played some nice solos. Looking forward to your return. With dancers still on the floor, the Jammer Band kept Trad Jazz songs going until 5 pm. Wow!
